

Areas of Intersectoral Action and Transitional Outcomes

Network Setup and Governance

Network Creation and Adoption of Network Governance Structures and Rules

Resolution of Controversies

Self-representing and Influencing Others

Production, Placement, Activation and Strengthening of Intermediaries

Representation by and Strengthening of Spokespersons

Aligning Necessary Actors and Resources

Resource Acquisition and Commitment of Decision-Makers

Alignment of Interests, Actors and Networks

The 12 Transitional Outcomes

- 1) Network Creation
- 2) Adoption of Network Governance Structures and Rules
- 3) Resolution of Controversies

- 4) Production of Intermediaries
- 5) Placement of Intermediaries
- 6) Activation of Intermediaries
- 7) Representation by Spokespersons
- 8) Strengthening of Spokespersons and Intermediaries

- 9) Alignment of Interests. Movements of Actors
- 10) Resource Acquisition
- 11) Expansion and Strengthening of Networks and their Projects
- 12) Commitment of Decision-Makers in Achieving Change

Definitions

- Intermediaries: Documents, people or funds that circulate among network members. They move forward collective action by establishing, advancing, and mobilizing ideas and guidelines for action.
- Spokespersons: People who convey ideas, knowledge and know-how on behalf of the group of actors.
- Controversies: Competing interpretations on the same phenomenon, the same question.

For more information: Bilodeau A, Lefebvre C, Galarneau M, Potvin L. (2018). "Local intersectoral action, its effects, and how they are produced." Focus on... Intersectoral Action Le Point sur... l'action intersectorielle, No. 4. Montréal: Canada Research Chair in Community Approaches and Health Inequalities https://chairecacis-outilinteractif.org/media/1136/focus_on_intersectoral_action_4.pdf

Research benefited of funding from CIHR, 2011–2016: (ROH 211-215).
Conception of the Tool received financial support from the Fonds des services aux collectivités, Ministère de l'Éducation, de l'Enseignement supérieur et de la Recherche du Québec (project 2015-010).
Translation of the Tool received financial support from the SSHRC Connection Grant (611-2019-1023),